

My most beautiful moment of happiness was when my love, Nuno Filipe, had prepared for me the most beautiful Valentine's day . We went to the highest place in the region. Without me noticing anything, he took out two crystal glasses of champagne and a red roses bunch where there was a little note: with lots of love. And the best: a ring, a solitaire and the most important, lots of love